Patriots Can Deplore Vietnam Intervention

Use a bit of common sense and reason before shouting . . . names at demonstrators. Remember it was the rabble who sparked the Boston massacre and the storming of the Bastille, followed by the elite of Virginia and the Bonapartes who carried on . . .

Just who invited the U.S. military to intervene in the civil war and internal affairs of Vietnam, the CIA puppets or the people of Vietnam?

I have traveled abroad in many countries, and have an honorable discharge for volunteer services in time of war. I would not trade my U.S. citizenship for that of any other nation. However I do not intend to be so stupid as to swallow the propaganda justifying our intervention into the internal affairs of other nations or Sorensen's eulogizing the sneak attack in the Bay of Pigs.
